THE VISION OF HOPE
LESSION TEXT—Ezekiel 47:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end."
PRIMARY TOPIC—Ezekiel's Message of Hope.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Ezekiel's Message of Hope.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The River of Life.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The River of Life.

Ezekiel's final vision, chapters 40 to 48, exhibits a comprehensive view of the restored order when the Messiah shall hold sway over the whole earth. Our lesson for today is but a small part of this vision. It can be understood only in the light of the whole. The following outstanding facts should be noted:

1. The restored temple (chs. 40-42).
2. The return of Jehovah (ch. 43).
3. The return of the Lord is seen taking his departure. In chapter 43 he is seen returning.
4. The arrangement of the services of the temple (chs. 44-46).
5. The river flowing from the temple (ch. 47-48).
6. The life bestowed upon the people (ch. 48:1-20).
7. The holy city (ch. 48:30-35).

In the attempted interpretation of this vision, some five different views are held. The one preferred by the present writer is that it is a prediction of the temple which shall be erected in Jerusalem. The temple is the symbol of the church. The river of life is the symbol of the Holy Spirit. The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future. The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future.

1. The River of Life (ch. 47).
The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future. The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future. The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future.

2. The River of Life (ch. 47).

The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future. The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future. The vision of the river of life is the vision of the church of the future.

UNEARTH RELICS 10,000 YEARS OLD

Find Sites of Old Towns Near Lake Constance.

Friedrichshafen—Relics of the days of 10,000 years ago have been unearthed from the banks of Lake Constance, and reveal that the famous lake which borders on Germany on one side and Switzerland on the other must have been greatly in favor with the lake dwellers.

The excavations have been going on for some time, and important finds have been made. The remains of 48 villages have been discovered in the water as well as in the adjoining fields. Ten thousand years ago the water is estimated to have been approximately a dozen feet higher than today.

One of the villages has been reconstructed, and opened for visits by tourists. It is situated near Friedrichshafen on the German bank. Another, near St. Gallen, is being dug out and reconstructed now. It dates to the time when man was unacquainted with fire.

The second village is proving especially rich. Owing to the projected regulation of the lake, which requires research deep on the floor of the Pacific between Japan and Guam, in Lat. 23° N. and Long. 141° E.

The "dope" is 28,380 feet in depth (more than five miles) and nearly nine miles wide at the greatest. It has been named by A. Fleming Deane, in honor of the assistant manager of the department of terrestrial magnetism at Carnegie Institute. As far as is known it is the sixth deepest hole in the sea.

The tract encountered a typhoon outside Tokyo bay.

Tells Hubby to Feed New Bungalows Himself

Chicago—Mrs. Anna Schurke, 3205 North Cicero avenue, may not have when she wouldn't let her husband, Alexander, "bring them into the house," he declared.

"She thought a bungalow was just some new kind of a duck," Alexander told Judge Sabath after his wife, who recently sued for divorce, told him she wouldn't let her husband feed the bungalows he had built.

"When I wrote her about them, she told me she didn't want them around and she said I'd have to feed them myself," Alexander said.

"Perhaps," suggested the court, "you couldn't read her writing and thought you meant bungalows."

Both admitted they hadn't been on speaking terms for ten years and communicated with each other by writing.

On July 4th Mrs. Ned Wagoner and Mrs. Dan Wagoner, who have been on a visit to Misses Lucy and Dorothy Evans here, left for her home in Richmond Sunday.

NOW WE OFFER 2 THINGS

1. A tougher, longer lasting tire.
2. A year's guarantee against the twelve most common tire troubles.

Now all Dunlop tires are Guaranteed and Bonded against the twelve most common tire troubles.

If a Dunlop is injured by accident, collision, blow-out—or any of the other mishaps listed below—the Dunlop Surety Bond covers you against any loss.

Two things make it possible for us to do this: 1. The rolling stone of tire rolls on. But still the vacant chair. Rejoice the love, the voice, the smile. Of the one who once sat there.

Even death has a wonderful mission. Tho it robs us of those we love, It draws from our surroundings To long for the meeting day above. No matter how heavy our loss, dispair, Doesn't Heaven seem nearer and brighter.

To know that we have loved ones there? Sad, are the bitter heart aches, Sweet, are the memories still. Where, called to that Home in glory Command of the Father's Life is short and changing. Death, but a restful sleep. Heaven, a rest for the weary. And a savior there to keep. How happy we were in days gone by. When our circle was fully complete. But now it is broken—one has gone. To sleep at the Savior's feet. Her Parents, Sisters and Brothers.
